

The Environment in NATA – Landscape and Environmental Capital
Hosted by Council for National Parks, Department for Transport, Natural England on Friday 7 March from 1.30 to 5pm in Room LG4 at Great Minster House SW1P

Agenda

12.30 Registration and Lunch

1.30 Welcome, Purpose of Seminar and the NATA Refresh Context

David Thompson, Chief Economist, Department for Transport

Chair: Adrian Gault, Head of Transport Analysis and Review Division, Department for Transport

1.45 Effectiveness of the Environmental Capital Approach

Paul Tomlinson, Head of Environmental Assessment and Policy, TRL
Questions

2.15 NATA Refresh: Next Steps in Valuing Landscape

Peter Sellen, Assistant Economist, Department for Transport
Questions

2.45 Capturing the Full Value of Landscape

Anne Robinson, Trustee, Council for National Parks
Questions

3.15 Tea

3.30 Breakout Sessions

Group One chaired by Kathleen Covill, Natural England/Paul Tomlinson Environmental Capital, Key Benefits and Challenges. Practitioners to provide feedback to TRL for informing the final draft of research report

Group Two chaired by Ruth Chambers, Council for National Parks
Monetary and Non-Monetary Approaches: Strengths and Weaknesses

4.30 Reconvene. Report findings from break out groups.

Graham Pendlebury, Director of Environment & International Directorate, DfT, will join delegates.

4.40 Discussion

Chair's Summing Up

5pm End